DIRECTORS'S REPORT – Keith Griffis

3. Marching season is coming to an end. MPA is this Saturday which is the State's assessment of the marching band program and the most important performance of the season.
4. Cabinets doors are being refurbished with new hinges.
5. Forms for FSU Band Day are due this Friday. All-County applications are over-due but can still be turned in. Next payment for the Washington DC trip is due today. Please let Ginny know if you want to put Chocolate sales credit towards the trip fees.
6. All 4 exterior doors have been fixed and now lock properly.
7. Chick-fil-a jazz performance is November 18. This is also a fundraiser as the band receive a portion of the proceeds of the food purchased.
8. Winter Concert is scheduled for December 12. More information upcoming.

9. Orders for Lion's Pride t-shirts are available through today. Parents and students may order them.

10. SnapRaise is finishing up and has been very successful.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT – Nicole Byrnes

11. Thank you to all the volunteers that have volunteered time, talent and treasure to this year's Marching Band season.

TREASURER'S REPORT – Ginny Thomas

12. $16,499 is currently in the bank. $7,567 was spent last month.

13. Credit for chocolate fund-raisers has been in Charms.

FUNDRAISING REPORT – Caroline Goodrich

14. 54% participation in SnapRaise was good, but hoping for more participation next year.

15. Shoes for Heart is the next fundraiser. Gently used shoes of all kinds can be donated. Gloria and Wendy have stepped up as Chair. Shoes can be dropped off at the Band room starting Monday.

16. Future Sprit Dinners will be scheduled, to be announced.

17. Band photos will happen in November, this is a fundraiser for the Band.

UNIFORMS– Nicole Byrnes

18. New jackets were available for Lion's Pride and 30 additional jackets are coming in February.

19. Uniforms were cleaned prior to Lion's Pride at a cost of $1,060.

EQUIPMENT – Orlando Calvo

20. New shelving was installed in the Sensations Room.

21. Requested to use funds to purchase another dolly for the water cooler. The purchase was approved.

HOSPITALITY – Jen Lingo

22. Jen reported that Lion's Pride meal for the students, staff and volunteers was a success with 100% donations, no Booster funds were used. For MPA meal, we are trying something different with a BBQ. Grillmasters and grills will be needed for the food preparation.

23. Water supply is sufficient for the remainder of the season.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

24. Fitting for tuxedos will occur in the next 2 weeks.

25. There will be car washes and some other planned fundraisers will be scheduled for 2020.
