Veterans were honored at the American Legion in Tampa this weekend.

Members of the award-winning Sickles High School Marching Wall of Sound and Sickles AFJROTC students honored Veterans at the American Legion Town & Country Memorial Post 152 on Sheldon Road.

“The Salute to Veterans” honored attending veterans. Including 6 from WWII. Band Director Keith Griffis led the band in playing the songs representing all the branches of the armed service - Army, Marines, Coast Guard, Navy and Air Force.
